

Poultry.—The information obtained for poultry and poultry products was the same for all States except Alaska. For Alaska, the total value of all poultry and poultry products sold was obtained for each farm. For all other States, the value of chickens and chicken eggs sold was calculated.

Two questions relating to chickens sold were on the questionnaire for the 1959 census. These questions were designed to provide data for commercial broilers separate from other chickens sold. The agriculture questionnaire and the instructions did not contain a definition of broilers. In many localities
