

Broilers comprised 87.3 percent of the number of all chickens sold in 1959, compared to 81.8 percent in 1954. The value of broilers sold comprised 87.6 percent of the value of all chickens sold in 1959, compared to 79.9 percent in 1954.

Chicken Eggs.—The value of sales for chicken eggs in 1959 was $1,056 million, or 15.2 percent above the $917 million reported for 1954.