Introduction

The Ranking of Congressional Districts Report presents selected 2007 Census of Agriculture statistics ranked by congressional districts. Rankings are based on congressional districts of the 110th Congress. The census of agriculture is the leading source of facts and statistics about the Nation's agricultural production. It provides a detailed picture of U.S. farms and ranches every five years and is the only source of uniform, comprehensive agricultural data for every State and county or county equivalent in the U.S.

PURPOSE AND TABULAR PRESENTATION

Data are ranked by congressional district for all States, except Alaska, Delaware, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Vermont, and Wyoming which are "at large" States. The State total is presented for the district. The statistics presented in this report include:

- Operator characteristics
- Farm characteristics
- Selected value of agricultural products sold
- Selected livestock and poultry inventories
- Selected crops harvested

HOW FARMS WERE ASSIGNED TO CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS

The 110th Congress congressional district tabulations of 2007 Census of Agriculture data are based on the location of operations reported in the census. Census respondents were asked to report their principal county of operation as the county with the greatest share of their total value of production. The congressional district assignments were based on county/state-level flat files and digitized cartographic files provided by the Census Bureau, the federal agency responsible for congressional apportionment among the States, as well as for mapping the resulting congressional districts in accordance with State requests. An additional resource for assigning congressional districts was a U.S. Postal Service product, the Address Information Systems (AIS) Zip + 4 database. The AIS links a district to a zip5 value (or values) and to an associated zip4 interval, for the last four digits of zip9s containing the record's zip5 and falling within the record's congressional district.

Of the 1,523,825 farm and ranch reports returned for the 2007 Census, 83.6 percent were deterministically assigned to a congressional district because the operation's reported principal county fell entirely within a congressional district. Another 12.9 percent of the total farm and ranch reports were assigned with certainty to a congressional district because their mailed zip code (zip5 or zip9) was located in the operation's principal county and the zip code fell entirely in a single congressional district.

As a result, deterministic assignments, those made with complete certainty, were achieved for 96.5 percent of the records. The remaining 3.5 percent of census farm and ranch reports were assigned probabilistically following a statistical model. For these cases, probabilistic assignment models were developed for each county divided into two or more districts. The probabilities of assignment to each congressional district within the county were the proportion of the county's digitized agricultural land contained in the district as maintained by NASS. All probabilistically assigned large farms and ranches were reviewed by NASS field offices to verify their assignments and, in some cases, corrections were made.

DATA COMPARABILITY

Most data are comparable with the 2002 congressional district ranking publication for most States. A few changes were made to the 2007 census that affect comparability for some data items. See Volume 1, Geographic Area Series, Appendix B, General Explanation and Census of Agriculture Report Form, Data Changes for a detailed description of the changes. Redistricting occurred after the 2002 release in Maine, Pennsylvania, Georgia, and Texas. For many of the districts in these States, the change was very small. All farm counts and totals published in this report were fully adjusted for nonresponse and coverage.

HISTORY

For 156 years (1840 - 1996), the U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census was responsible for collecting census of agriculture data. The 1997 Appropriations Act contained a provision that transferred the responsibility for the census of agriculture from the Bureau of the Census to the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS). The 2007 Census of Agriculture is the 27th Federal census of agriculture and the third conducted by NASS.

The first agriculture census was taken in 1840 as part of the sixth decennial census of population. The agriculture census continued to be taken as part of the decennial census through 1950. A separate mid-decade census of agriculture was conducted in 1925, 1935, and 1945. From 1954 to 1974, the census was taken for the years ending in 4 and 9. In 1976, Congress authorized the census of agriculture to be taken for 1978 and 1982 to adjust the data reference year so that it coincided with other economic censuses. This adjustment in timing established the agriculture census on a 5-year cycle collecting data for years ending in 2 and 7.

USES OF CENSUS DATA

Agriculture census data are routinely used by farm organizations, businesses, State departments of agriculture, elected representatives and legislative bodies at all levels of government, public and private sector analysts, the news media, and colleges and universities. Agriculture census data are used to:

- Evaluate, change, promote, and formulate farm and rural policies and programs that help agricultural producers;
- Study historical trends, assess current conditions, and plan for the future;
- Formulate market strategies, provide more efficient production and distribution systems, and locate facilities for agricultural communities;
- Make energy projections and forecast needs for agricultural producers and their communities;
- Develop new and improved methods to increase agricultural production and profitability;
- Allocate local and national funds for farm programs, e.g. extension service projects, agricultural research, soil conservation programs, and land-grant colleges and universities;
- Plan for operations during drought and emergency outbreaks of diseases or infestations of pests.
- Analyze and report on the current state of food, fuel, feed, and fiber production in the United States.

In addition agricultural news media and agricultural associations use census data as background material for stories and articles on U.S. agriculture and the foods we produce.

AUTHORITY

The 2007 Census of Agriculture is required by law under the “Census of Agriculture Act of 1997,” Public Law 105-113 (Title 7, United States Code, Section 2204g). The law directs the Secretary of Agriculture to conduct a census of agriculture in 1998 and in every fifth year after, covering the prior year. The census of agriculture includes each State, Puerto Rico, Guam, the U.S. Virgin Islands, the Commonwealth of Northern Mariana Islands, and American Samoa.

RELATED INFORMATION

National, State, and county data are published in detailed national and State tables for the United States, and in State and county

(or county equivalent) tables for each State. These reports include data on number and size of farms; crop production; livestock, poultry, and their products; tenure, age, and principal occupation of operator and up to 3 operators; type of organization; value of products sold; government payments plus market value of agricultural products sold; production expenses; direct marketing; landlord expenses; computer use; production contracts; fertilizers and chemicals; machinery and equipment; farm labor and migrant workers; value of land and buildings; agricultural activity on American Indian reservations; grain storage capacity; land use; irrigation; organic farming; the North American Industry Classification System; and more. All census data are available online at the NASS website at www.nass.usda.gov. For additional information, call 1-800-727-9540.

SYMBOLS

- (D) Withheld to avoid disclosing data for individual farms.
- (Z) Less than half of the unit shown.

General Terms

Acres. Crops were reported in whole acres, except for the following crops that were reported in tenths of acres: tobacco, vegetables including potatoes and sweet potatoes, and land in orchards. Totals for crops reported in tenths of acres were rounded to whole acres at the aggregate level during the tabulation process.

If a crop was planted but not harvested, the acres were not reported as harvested. This does not include land in fruit and nut orchards and vineyards. Acres in these commodities were included in cropland harvested whether the crop was harvested or not.

Crop year or season covered. Acres harvested are for the calendar year 2007 except for citrus crops and sugarcane for sugar; limes in Arizona, California, Florida, Hawaii, Louisiana, and Texas; avocados in Florida and California; olives in California and Arizona; and pineapples and coffee in Hawaii. The harvest season for these crops included part of the 2006 calendar year or extended slightly beyond the 2007 calendar year.

Cropland, harvested. See Harvested cropland.

Forage - land used for all hay and all haylage, grass silage, and greenchop. Data shown represent the area harvested with each acre counted only once if dry hay, haylage, grass silage, or greenchop were cut from the same acreage or if there were multiple cuttings of dry hay, haylage, grass silage, or greenchop

Government payments received. This category consists of direct payments as defined by the 2002 Farm Bill; payments from Conservation Reserve Program (CRP), Wetlands Reserve Program (WRP), Farmable Wetlands Program (FWP), and Conservation Reserve Enhancement Program (CREP); loan deficiency payments; disaster payments; other conservation programs; and all other federal farm programs under which payments were made directly to farm operators. Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) proceeds, amount from State and local government agricultural program payments, and federal crop insurance payments were not tabulated in this category.

Harvested cropland. This category includes land from which crops were harvested and hay was cut, land used to grow short-rotation woody crops and land in orchards, citrus groves, Christmas trees, vineyards, nurseries, and greenhouses. Land from which two or more crops were harvested was counted only once. Land in tapped maple trees was included in woodland not pastured.

Land in farms. The acreage designated as "land in farms" consists primarily of agricultural land used for crops, pasture, or grazing. It also includes woodland and wasteland not actually under cultivation or used for pasture or grazing, provided it was part of the farm operator's total operation. Large acreages of woodland or wasteland held for nonagricultural purposes were deleted from individual reports during the edit process. Land in farms includes CRP, WRP, FWP, and CREP acres.

Land in farms is an operating unit concept and includes land owned and operated as well as land rented from others. Land used rent free was reported as land rented from others. All grazing land, except land used under government permits on a per-head basis, was included as “land in farms” provided it was part of a farm or ranch. Land under the exclusive use of a grazing association was reported by the grazing association and included as land in farms. All land in American Indian reservations used for growing crops, grazing livestock, or the potential of grazing livestock was included as land in farms. Land in reservations not reported by reservation, individual American Indians or non-Native Americans was reported in the name of the cooperative group that used the land. In many instances, an entire American Indian reservation was reported as one farm.

Land in orchards. This category includes land in bearing age and nonbearing age fruit trees, citrus or other groves, vineyards, and nut trees of all ages, including land on which all fruit crops failed. Respondents were instructed not to report abandoned plantings and plantings of fewer than 20 total fruit, citrus, or nut trees or grapevines.

Market value of agricultural products sold. This category represents the gross market value before taxes and production expenses of all agricultural products sold or removed from the place in 2007 regardless of who received the payment. It is equivalent to total sales and it includes sales by the operators as well as the value of any shares received by partners, landlords, contractors, or others associated with the operation. It includes value of direct sales and the value of commodities placed in the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) loan program. Market value of agricultural products sold does not include payments received for participation in other federal farm programs. Also, it does not include income from farm-related sources such as customwork and other agricultural services, or income from nonfarm sources.

The value of crops sold in 2007 does not necessarily represent the sales from crops harvested in 2007. Data may include sales from crops produced in earlier years and may exclude some crops produced in 2007 but held in storage and not sold. For commodities such as sugarbeets and wool sold through a co-op that made payments in several installments, respondents were requested to report the total value received in 2007.

The value of agricultural products sold was requested of all operators. If the operators failed to report this information, estimates were made based on the amount of crops harvested, livestock or poultry inventory, or number sold. Sales figures are expressed in current dollars and have not been adjusted for inflation or deflation.

Nursery and greenhouse crops and sod. These data include sales of aquatic plants; bulbs, corms, rhizomes, and tubers; cuttings, seedlings, liners, and plugs; floriculture crops; flower seeds; greenhouse fruits and berries; total greenhouse vegetables and fresh cut herbs; mushrooms; mushroom spawn; nursery stock; other nursery crops; sod harvested; tobacco transplants; vegetable seeds; and vegetable transplants. In the 2002 census, mushroom spawn were not included so total sales data are not directly comparable.

Operator characteristics. Operators (up to three operators per farm) were asked to report primary occupation, sex, age, race, place of residence, if retired, number of days worked off farm, year in which his/her operation of the farm began, hired manager, number of persons living in the operators’ households, and Spanish, Hispanic, or Latino origin. Information on the total number of operators and total number of women operators was collected from each operation. In addition, the principal operator was asked to report the percentage of total household income that came from the farm operation.

Operators. The term operator designates a person who operates a farm, either doing the work or making day-to-day decisions about such things as planting, harvesting, feeding, and marketing. The operator may be the owner, a member of the owner's household, a hired manager, a tenant, a renter, or a sharecropper. If a person rents land to others or has land worked on shares by others, he/she is considered the operator only of the land which is retained for his/her own operation. The census collected information on the total number of operators, the total number of women operators, and demographic information for up to three operators per farm.

Operators, all. Demographic and other information were collected for up to three operators per farm: the principal operator plus one or two additional operators. This may be fewer than the total number of operators on some farms. All operators refers to these multiple operators. Demographic data for up to the three operators reported are presented separately for women, by race categories, and for Spanish, Hispanic, or Latino origin.

Operators, total. Data represent the total reported number of operators on farms and ranches.

Other animals and other animal products sold. Data are for the total market value of all animals and animal products not having specific codes on the 2007 census report form.

Other crops and hay. Data are for the total market value of all crops not categorized into one of the prelisted crop sales categories on the 2007 census report form and hay sales. This category includes crops such as grass seed, hay and grass silage, haylage, greenchop, hops, maple syrup, mint for oil, peanuts, sugarcane, sugarbeets, etc.

Primary occupation of operator. Data on age and primary occupation were obtained from up to three operators per farm. The primary occupation classifications used were:

1. Farming or ranch work. The operator spent 50-percent or more of his/her worktime during 2007 at farming or ranching.
2. Other. The operator spent less than 50-percent of his/her worktime during 2007 in farming or ranching operations.

Principal operator. The person primarily responsible for the on-site, day-to-day operation of the farm or ranch business. This person may be a hired manager or business manager. See Operators for further explanation

Race of operator. Data, except for Hawaii, were collected for American Indian (included Alaska Native), Asian, Black or African American, Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander, and White. Respondents were asked to mark one or more of the race categories. In Hawaii operator race data were collected for American Indian (included Alaska Native), Chinese, Filipino, Japanese, Korean, Other Asian, Black or African American, Native Hawaiian, other Pacific Islander, and White. The combination of Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander is equivalent to the Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander category on the other forms. The combination of the Chinese, Filipino, Japanese, Korean, and Other Asian categories is equivalent to the Asian category on the other forms. The Volume 1, Geographic Area Series, U.S. Summary publication only displays counts for the categories of Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander and Asian. Data for the 11 Hawaii race categories are published in chapter 2 of the Hawaii publication of the Volume 1 series.

Spanish, Hispanic, or Latino origin. Operators of Spanish, Hispanic, or Latino origin are found in all of the racial groups listed in the census and were tabulated according to the race reported, as well as on tables pertaining only to this group.

Sugarcane for sugar. Acres harvested for Hawaii are for the calendar year 2007. Data for acres harvested in Florida, Louisiana, and Texas are for cuttings from September 2007 through April 2008.

Tenure of principal operator. All farms were classified by tenure of operators. The classifications used were:

- Full owners operated only land they owned.
- Part owners operated land they owned and also land they rented from others.
- Tenants operated only land they rented from others or worked on shares for others.

Type of organization. All farms were classified by type of organization in the 2007 census. The classifications used were:

1. Family or individual (sole proprietorship), excluding partnership and corporation.

2. Partnership, including family partnership – in selected tables, partnership was further subclassified into:
 - a. Registered under State law.
 - b. Not registered under State law.
3. Corporation, including family corporations - in selected tables, corporation was further subclassified into:
 - a. Family held or other than family held.
 - b. More than 10 stockholders.
4. Other, cooperative, estate or trust, institutional, etc.

Vegetables harvested for sale. The acres of vegetables harvested is the summation of the acres of individual vegetables harvested. All of the individual vegetable items may not be shown. When more than one vegetable crop was harvested from the same acreage, acres were counted for each crop. In 2007, ginseng, potatoes, and sweet potatoes are included in vegetables harvested. In 2002, these acres were included in field crops. The 2002 data, where compared, were not adjusted to include ginseng, potatoes, and sweet potatoes acreage.
